The weather is getting colder and I hope you all had a great summer and early fall, so far. There are a lot of activities ahead of us, in November and December, that we can look forward to celebrating together.

The Turkey Raffle is one of our largest events. It takes a lot of volunteers to bring all of these events together. I want to take a moment and thank each and every person who helped make the Turkey Raffle a huge success this year. This also includes the Ladies Auxiliary who put in the extra effort for this event! We can not put on these events without each of you. I also want to thank those of you who supported by attending the raffle and inviting your family and friends to join us.

Thank you to Marie Webster for organizing the Halloween Dance on Oct. 26. This was a great time for those in attendance.

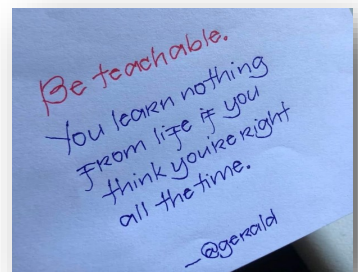

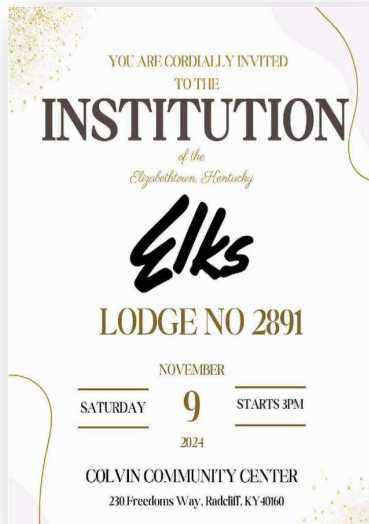

Jack Brown from the Ashland Lodge, visited our lodge during our member meeting on 10/10/24. He shared a message about over consumption and over serving and the importance of the bartenders role to ensure members are not being over served. The Elks could be held responsible even if we get someone home safely. Be respectful of our bartenders who need to ensure the safety of our members.

November and December meetings have been changed due to the holidays. Both months, meetings will be on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays at 7:30 and Initiation will be on Nov 14 at 7PM.

Be active, be present, and demonstrate brotherly love. We need your supportive and active membership to promote a healthy lodge.

We practice being ELKS by being there when needed, stepping up when asked and volunteering our time and resources when necessary. Working together we can accomplish great things. I cannot be a good ELK without my fellow ELKS. We are a team! (Taken from I am an ELK motto)

2025 ELKS NATIONAL BOWLING

Last month's newsletter highlighted the 2024 Elks National Bowling tournament. It's already time to plan your trips to the 2025 Kentucky State Bowling Tournament and the 2025 National Bowling tournament.

The Kentucky State Bowling Tournament takes place in Louisville on March 22-23 hosted by Louisville Elks Lodge #8. The bowling alley is King Pin Lanes in Jeffersontown, KY. The hotel is the Hyatt Place on South Hurstborne Parkway in Louisville. Even though this tournament takes place first, the entry forms and money are due in later. So we're going to concentrate this month on the National Elks Tournament.

The 2025 National Elks Bowling Tournament takes place over 7 weeks in Logansport, Indiana hosted by the Logansport Elks Lodge #66. Our lodge goes to this tournament the last week which is April 26-27. The bowling alley is Myers Sport Bowl on East Market Street in Logansport. The hotel is the Holiday Inn Express Hotel & Suites just about 100 yards from the bowling alley (574) 735-6000.

Entry forms are available from Dave Haverkamp, Sam Taylor, or Don Spradlin. If you have a team or are an individual looking for a team, please let any one of the three representatives know. The big change for this year's tournament is there are only 4 bowlers per team. This will mean many teams will need to drop a bowler. Dave, Sam, or Don can help you find a team or a bowler. The cost is $75 per bowler. The money and/or forms are due back to them no later than December 1st so please have your money and forms to Dave Haverkamp by November 25, 2024.

COVERED IN LOVE

This will be the 11th year for "Covered in Love", our family's charitable project done in memory of our precious daughter Christi who lost her battle with addiction in 2011.

Every year we, with the generosity and help of many loving hands, make and donate "no-sew" fleece blankets for those in local rehabs and sober living houses. At Christmas the ribbon tied blankets, along with a note of encouragement, are distributed to those most in need of knowing that their lives matter.

We would be honored to have you join us for blanket making. We will gather in the Elks back hall on Wednesday November 6th. Come any time after 5PM and stay as long as you wish. We supply all materials needed (if you have fabric shears, please bring for your use **No skill required - we will give you a simple lesson. I personally guarantee that participation will warm you heart.

This is the 1st of several blankets making sessions to be scheduled.

Please text me @859/466-0747 if you have any questions.

Gratefully, Jenni Woodruff
